“John Ellis’s playing elicits memories of the ‘bel canto’ style of the past. One remembers his beautiful singing trumpet sound long after the performance has ended.”

*Douglas Sturdevant, former Principle Trumpet
National Arts Centre Orchestra
(The Orchestra of Canada)*

John Ellis has thrilled audiences for over twenty years with his lyrical style and consummate artistry.

A native of Chicago Illinois, John Ellis has performed as soloist and chamber musician throughout the United States, Canada and Europe. He holds the degree of Doctor of Music from Arizona State University, where he studied with David Hickman. A versatile performer and educator, Dr. Ellis has appeared with a variety of musical organizations and artists including the Canadian Brass, the US Army Brass Band, Studio de Musique Ancienne de Montreal, the Calgary Philharmonic, the Moody Blues, as well as Grammy Award winners Diana Krall, Tony Bennett and Anne Murray. He has been heard internationally in a solo recital broadcast by CBC-Radio Canada, and has presented clinics and recitals at prestigious institutions and festivals throughout the world, including The Juilliard School, Cincinnati Conservatory, the National Trumpet Competition, International Horn and Trombone Festivals, Summit Brass, the Banff Festival, and the Raphael Mendez Brass Festival. He is currently Principal Trumpet of the Ottawa Symphony Orchestra, the Orchestra of Northern New York and a member of the Potsdam Brass Quintet. Dr. Ellis holds the position of Professor of Music at The Crane School of Music, State University of New York at Potsdam.

His recent recordings include La Réjouissance and The Art of Brass by the Potsdam Brass Quintet. His solo recording, SoloPro; Music for Trumpet, is released on the Summit Records label.
